Dear [REDACTED],

1. Thank you for your email of 10 May 2021 in which you requested the following information from UK Anti-Doping ('UKAD') under the Freedom of Information Act 2000:

"Under the Freedom of Information Act, I request details of any correspondence between UKAD staff (past or present) and WADA or Sport England between 1 August 2012 and 1 August 2013, surrounding the adverse analytical finding for salbutamol for Dame Sarah Storey, the retrospective therapeutic use exemption for her (or any discussions about one being sought in advance), and the handling of this finding and the case.

I request the following details:

- the names of the UKAD representatives/staff involved
- the date of the correspondence
- the nature of the correspondence
- any conclusions made by the correspondence
- any decisions of the correspondence
- copies of the correspondence

Additionally

- the names of the WADA/Sport England representatives/staff involved
- the date of the correspondence
- the nature of the correspondence
- any conclusions or decisions
- copies of the correspondence"

Response

2. UKAD does not hold any documents responsive to your request.

Conclusion

3. If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of this response and should be addressed via email to foi@ukad.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any further communications.
4. If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
