

Major Games

Clean sport on home soil

Wednesday 21 September 13:00

Hear about athlete experiences and the anti-doping programme at Birmingham 2022 during the first installment of the Clean Sport Connect Webinars.

Speaker bio

---

Tony Josiah

Director of Education,
Insight and Global Engagement
UK Anti-Doping

Tony is responsible for the organisation's education programmes, international activities and stakeholder relations.

Tony is also an elected member of the Institute of National Anti-Doping Organisations (INADO) Board, contributing to their strategic direction and international fight against doping in sport.

Tony has more than 20 years of experience in the field of anti-doping, working for UKAD since it was formed in 2009.

Wendy Henderson

Anti-Doping Consultant
Sport Northern Ireland

Wendy is the Anti-Doping Consultant at Sport Northern Ireland and manages the Clean Sport education programme for Team Northern Ireland (Team NI). Wendy is also a UKAD National Trainer and Doping Control Officer and was on the World Anti-Doping Agency's Outreach Team at Commonwealth Games Delhi 2010, Glasgow 2014 and at the London 2012 Olympics. She provided Team NI with Performance and Anti-Doping support at Gold Coast 2018, and Birmingham 2022 was her second Commonwealth Games as part of Team NI HQ staff. Passionate about clean sport, her other roles involve International Testing Agency IDCO Trainer, European Athletics Doping Control Delegate, and she recently completed an eight-year term on the Sport Ireland Anti-Doping Committee.

Jude Hamer

UKAD Athlete Commission member and Wheelchair Basketball player

Jude is a 4.0 British Wheelchair Basketball player who fell in love with the sport in 2007 when she was introduced to it via a local Paralympic Potential Day, just a year after having her right leg amputated. Jude went on to join the Exeter Otters club and made her international debut at the 2009 BT Paralympic World Cup and competed in multiple World Cup, Paralympic and European Championship events.

She was awarded a Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Award for bravery and trekked across the Andes Mountains in Ecuador as part of a TV show, Beyond Boundaries. In addition to her off court successes, Jude also has a Master of Science degree in Pharmacology and Biotechnology and is a passionate advocate for LGBTQ+ rights in sport.

Major Games

Clean sport on home soil

Wednesday 21 September 13:00

Hear about athlete experiences and the anti-doping programme at Birmingham 2022 during the first installment of the Clean Sport Connect Webinars.

Speaker bio

---

Pat Hartley

Taskforce Manager
UK Anti-Doping

Pat has worked in anti-doping for over 16 years, beginning in UK Sport's Drug-Free Sport team and then its successor organisation UKAD. Since November 2018, Pat has been UKAD's Head of Results. With a background in both Results Management and Intelligence, Pat delivered UKAD's role as the secretariat for the Pre-Games Anti-Doping Taskforce for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games. Pat's Major Games experience also includes work as part of UKAD's Intelligence Team for the London 2012 Olympic Games, and in the Doping Control Command Centre for the Glasgow 2014 Commonwealth Games.

Danny Ashworth

Control Manager for Birmingham 2022
UK Anti-Doping

Danny is the Doping Control Manager for the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games. He leads on UKAD's role as the anti-doping contractor to plan and deliver all anti-doping programme areas, including testing, education and intelligence. Danny has been at UKAD for seven years and prior to this role was the Deputy Head of Testing, overseeing the implementation of the Test Distribution Plan for over 50 sports. He has also held positions on two International Expert Groups ahead of the Pyeongchang and Tokyo Olympics focused on improving worldwide anti-doping testing before the Games.

Emilie Moffat

Performance Sport Education Manager
UK Anti-Doping

Emilie is UKAD's Performance Sport Education Manager, managing a variety of clean sport education partnerships and programmes for athletes and support personnel involved in performance sport. Working closely with key stakeholders and NGBs, Emilie leads on the provision and coordination of pre Games education, ensuring that all athletes and support personnel have the relevant level of knowledge and information before heading to a Major Games, such as Olympics, Paralympics and Commonwealth Games. Having worked at UKAD for almost five years now, Emilie has led and supported on several additional programmes across the wider education team and represented UKAD at conferences, events and most recently at the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games, as a member of the Doping Control Command Centre team.