Dear [REQUESTER NAME],

1. Thank you for your email of 11 June 2026 in which you requested information from UK Anti-Doping ('UKAD') under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'). Specifically, your request was as follows:

*"I would like to request information on the drug Adderall.
Does any uk sports person currently hold a TUE for this drug Secondly, but related, when monitoring competition testing, is there any quantitative analysis done to ensure that the presence of a stimulant that the athlete has a TUE for corresponds to the correct prescribed dose from the athlete's Doctor?"*

Response

2. In relation to the first part of your request concerning Adderall, UKAD holds information.
3. As at the date of your request (i.e., 11 June 2026), a valid Therapeutic Use Exemption ('TUE') for Adderall was held by one 'Athlete' (as that term is defined in the UK Anti-Doping Rules) with UKAD.
4. In relation to the second part of your request, please note that the information requested is already within the public domain and would fall to be exempt under section 21 of the Act (information accessible to the applicant by other means). However, UKAD has nevertheless responded to this part of your request in good faith.
5. The relevant information can be found at the following:
 - a) Articles 4.2.1 and 7.3.3(a) of the 2021 UK Anti-Doping Rules;
 - b) Article 5.3.6.2.2 of the WADA International Standard for Laboratories 2021; and

- c) Article 5.1.1.1 of the WADA International Standard for Results Management 2023.

Conclusion

6. If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of this response and should be addressed via email to foi@ukad.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any further communications.
7. If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely
